Restaurant

Our restaurant is situated on the first floor at the old Murça Count's Palace. It's location is adjacent to "Cerca Velha" the roman - moure wall in Lisbon. Here, in beautiful surroundings, next to a wall that once protected this city, you can dine on traditional hand-painted dishes from Alentejo set with true Minho embroidery. mesa encontra pratos de artesanato pintados à mão no Alentejo, bordados Minhotos e vergas da Beira Alta.

The restaurant has smoking and non smoking areas in two distinct areas, ensuring that whether you smoke or not, you will enjoy your evening with us.

And it is here, in total comfort that you can experience all the delicacies that only gourmet traditional Portuguese cuisine can offer. From "Sopa da Pedra" (Stone Soup) to "Vieiras Gratinadas" (Roasted Scallops) or "Bacalhau com Natas" (Cod on Cream) or "Bacalhau com Broa" (Cod with Cornbread). The real "Bife à Portuguesa" (Portuguese beef) or you can try "old style" Portuguese cuisine accompanied with a unique selection of the best Portuguese wines. At Páteo the Alfama you are sure to taste the best that Portugal has to offer!
